NEWSPAPER WEEK

October 1 to 8 has been designated Newspaper Week. To the American Press, swimming through the floods of war news, economic and political news that spills off the wires 24 hours a day, there will be little time to pause for celebration.

Today, the American Press represents much more than an aggregate of daily and weekly newspapers, and it is doing much more than merely reporting the multitude of events that will fill the pages of history tomorrow. It is in itself a fighting weapon in our struggle against Axis tyranny. Through its many pages it seeks to arouse the public to the dangers of complacency with our war effort; it cautions against repeating information that may be valuable to enemy ears; it points out the necessity for sacrifice, and the importance of conserving strategic materials. And certainly it has done much to "sell" Americans on the imperative need to "back the attack" in the purchase of War Bonds.

But in addition to all this, American newspapers stand as a bulwark against the encroachment on the right of free speech. And they are fighting—and winning—their battle for more prompt reports of important military actions. Already this has resulted in a report of the attack on Jap-held Marcus Island even while it was in progress.

Americans are the best informed people on the globe. And it is the purpose and determination of the men and women who gather and publish the news of the day to see that they remain so.

NOW IS THE TIME

There was once an enterprising young businessman who had but one wish, that his mill would grind salt. "Grind salt, and more salt," he cried. As in the way of fairy tales, his wish was granted—very literally.

Salt streamed out. He filled containers, then every receptacle. Salt piled up on the floor, reached window level and overflowed on the ground outside like ever-growing snowdrifts.

Here in California we wished desperately for more workers to help in war production. "Give us workers, more workers," we cried. People came—more and more in a rising human tide. They filled living accommodations and overflowed. Cities and towns began to bulge. Still they come.

This excess labor, so helpful now, will constitute a most serious problem to the State after the war. By what means shall we keep this army of workers employed? Civic heads are thinking and working hard for the answer. But something more is needed.

Every individual should ask himself the questions: How will I stand when war jobs vanish? What can I do about it now? Am I spending as fast as I earn, or am I buying War Bonds and laying away a few dollars in a bank savings account for a reserve?

The man who spends wisely, who is getting ahead financially through War Bonds and bank savings, is making his own post-war plans. If every worker would do this, the "after victory" problem would be largely solved. It would contribute to a sounder economy —to a winning of the war now, and a "winning of the peace" later. But, now is the time to act—right now!

CAREFUL COOKING WILL FLOAT A BATTLESHIP

BUDGET AND SAVE FOR WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

YOUR DRUGGIST IS A Working Warrior

● We aren't looking for a hero's halo, or anything of the sort. But we do point out that in war times your prescription pharmacist has a rather important part to play. We share, with your physician, the great responsibility of keeping people well so that our vitally important war work will not be delayed.

If you are feeling a little under par physically, we urge you to call on a good physician. Our part is to fill his prescription—exactly as directed—and at a fair price.

How Big Is Your Heart?

This month, we must finance three vital jobs—helping the people in unoccupied and, if possible, occupied countries—maintaining the morale of our armed forces wherever they may be—and relieving distress in our own community.

Much is needed for this mighty task, and the need will be met if your heart is big when you write your check. Remember, you make just one big contribution instead of many small ones. So add up everything you would be giving to all the separate agencies, and then double it!

The need is crucial—so give, and give all you possibly can!

DALY CITY MUST SEND ITS DOLLARS OF MERCY to the Suffering People Around the Earth. It Must Help Its Own San Mateo Welfare Agencies. Both these Objectives Are to be Met

Julia says— Coffee can be entertaining

IT'S ONE THING to brew a pot of coffee and it's another to use coffee as the principal theme in feeding and entertaining a group of people. But with just the slightest amount of ingenuity you can do that very thing with brilliant success.

I'm thinking of such problems as: taking care of a group of Red Cross workers, or the war-working woman who wants to entertain some friends of a Sunday morning, or an informal midday meeting of P. T. A. members.

Recently I took another trip down into the heart of that hospitable state, Texas. And I had the warm pleasure of being a guest at just such a "morning coffee party" which started about eleven-thirty.

The whole affair was on the order of a "brunch," so that late workers could consider it a breakfast and early risers would make it a lunch.

When I investigated the details, later (my curiosity is never satisfied) I discovered that the whole thing had been contrived simply and in a short time. The menu was as follows:

Baked Chicken Hash with Ripe Olive Sauce
Broiled Tomato Halves
Hot Corn Muffins Currant Jelly
Old-Fashioned Gingerbread and Coffee

The gingerbread tasted so good with the coffee I asked my hostess for the recipe. Here it is:

OLD-FASHIONED GINGERBREAD

2½ cups enriched flour	½ tsp. cloves
2 tsps. baking powder	½ cup shortening
½ tsp. soda	½ cup sugar
½ tsp. salt	2 eggs
1 tsp. ginger	1 cup molasses
1 tsp. cinnamon	1 cup boiling water

Sift flour, measure; sift again with baking powder, soda, salt and spices. Cream shortening; gradually add sugar, creaming until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Alternately add molasses and flour mixture, beating until smooth. Add boiling water and stir until combined. Bake in well-greased drip pan (9½x12x2) in moderate oven (350° F), 45 minutes or until done. Serve warm or cold, plain, with cheese topping, wedges of cheese or warm with a fruit sauce. Serves 12.

Of course there are "evening coffee affairs" when guests come after they have had their dinner—all but dessert—and you serve coffee and any dessert you want.

MILO'S MARKET DE LUXE

6315 MISSION ST.

Travel difficulties and busy daily schedules make it doubly necessary that housewives have a convenient, nearby source of supply for everyday requirements. Modern market restrictions have eliminated cut prices and other methods of coaxing shoppers across town in search of elusive "bargains." So today's food buyers can be offered only these things: full selection of quality stocks, competitive prices, courteous, helpful service, and convenient location. Daly City residents have these in full measure, when they make purchases at Milo's Market. This complete emporium combines departments specializing in every type of foodstuffs, all under one roof. Nationally advertised brands of packaged fancy and staple groceries; fine dressed poultry and a complete variety of fresh fish; fresh & cured meats selling in such great volume that a full choice of cuts and kinds is assured; and a veritable "vegetable garden" with mam moth displays of every produce item in season. Each department is manned by specialists in their own lines to give expert advice on selection and preparation. Each department is "tops" in its field, and rockbottom in its prices. You'll find our big-store methods of operation helpful to your household budget of dollars and points. And our one-stop shopping center saves your time and energy. Come to the "top of the hill" in Daly City - - to Milo's Market.

THE BIG STORE

ISSUE WARNING ABOUT CHECKS

Twelve million checks a month are being mailed by the United States Treasury department. They are going principally to dependents of men in the armed forces—to the wives and mothers of men who are giving their all in the barren wastes of the Arctic, in the far reaches of the Pacific, in the unbearable heat of the desert—that American ideals may not perish from the earth.

"That anyone would stoop to the level of pilfering these checks from mailboxes is well nigh unbelievable, yet true," the Treasury says.

Because of the hardships occasioned by such thievery and due to the necessary investigation and routine of issuing a duplicate check, the United States Secret Service has requested that everyone join in a nation-wide campaign of education designed to protect payees and merchants against this meanest of all thieves.

When cashing checks for others, the Secret Service suggests these four points.

1. Know your endorsers.
2. Before cashing a Government check for a stranger, ask yourself this question—"If the bank returns this check as a forgery, can I find the forger and recover my loss?"
3. Have all checks initialed by the employee who cashes them.
4. Insist upon having all checks endorsed in your presence.

PROTECT THAT CHECK

If an allotment or allowance check is received from the Government, the Secret Service urges that these simple suggestions be followed.

1. Never endorse a check until you are actually in the presence of the person who will cash it.
2. Be sure your mailbox is locked.
3. Whenever possible, arrange with your mail carrier to deliver all checks in person rather than to the box.
4. See that your name is printed plainly on your mailbox.
5. If you change your address notify the postal authorities immediately.
6. Cash your checks in the same place each month.
7. Cash your checks yourself. Don't send small children to the store with it. Such a practice encourages juvenile delinquency and already one Federal Judge has sentenced a merchant for cashing a Government check for a child, obviously not the payee.

Orange Tea Biscuits

By Frances Lee Barton

CHANGE your menu as often as you can. Even the war worker must have variety for her family and herself. Health seldom remains in the home where meals are not varied.

Here is a tea biscuit recipe that is timely. These "different" delicacies may be whipped up in no time at all — and they disappear just as rapidly when placed on the table.

Orange Tea Biscuits

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; 5 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 2 teaspoons grated orange rind; ⅓ cup milk.

4 tablespoons sugar; 2 teaspoons grated orange rind; ¼ teaspoon orange juice (about).

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add orange rind and blend. Add milk all at once and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out immediately on lightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll ¼ inch thick and cut with floured 1¾ inch biscuit cutter.

Combine sugar, orange rind, and enough orange juice to make a crumbly mixture. Place ½ of biscuits in greased muffin pans, or on ungreased baking sheet, and brush with melted butter. Sprinkle with sugar mixture, and top with remaining biscuits, pressing lightly together. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 8 to 10 minutes, or until done. Makes 18 small biscuits.

An Old Favorite with a New Flavor

SUCH an oldtime favorite as Chiffon Pie is especially good when the unexpected and delicious flavor of coffee is added . . and is it a welcome change! Just try this on your family some day soon and watch them come back for second helpings. Remember that in addition to the pleasure of drinking coffee you can use it as a flavoring many times when the recipe calls for some scarce or hard-to-get flavor. Served with coffee, iced or hot, this Coffee Chiffon Pie makes a perfect dessert for any meal.

This recipe for Coffee Chiffon Pie is simply delicious and it has the advantage of requiring practically no cooking. The filling is equally good when used with corn flake or graham cracker pastry or a regular baked pastry shell. Serve it with full strength coffee and you have a dessert the whole family will enjoy. Tall glasses of refreshing iced coffee or teeming hot cups of this energizing beverage will appeal to all. Here is the recipe for Coffee Chiffon Pie.

Coffee Chiffon Pie

1 tablespoon gelatin
1¼ cups cold coffee
½ cup sugar
2 egg yolks, well beaten
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
Pie shell

Soften gelatin in ¼ cup coffee. Add ¼ cup sugar gradually to beaten egg yolks. Add coffee and salt and blend. Cook over boiling water 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Add softened gelatin and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Beat remaining sugar gradually into beaten egg whites, and fold into coffee mixture. Pour into 8-inch pie shell made with corn flake or graham cracker pastry, or into a baked pastry shell.

War Housing Needs Still On Increase

"During the past month, we tried to place 978 people who needed housing accommodations. This was a new high record, the last week bringing more new applicants into our office at 1108 Burlingame avenue than any other week since the War Housing Center was opened," said Louis J. Lengfeld, manager of the San Mateo County War Housing center in a recent report.

"We were able to find accommodations for only 100 during the month.

"The housing situation in this area will become worse as our offensive in the Pacific increases. Every vacancy possible should be reported to the War Housing Center."

The San Mateo County War Housing Center serves as a clearing house for lodging war workers. Accommodations already listed with it are virtually exhausted. Those who have available living space are asked to open their homes to war workers. List all such accommodations with the War Housing Center, 1108 Burlingame avenue. Phone Burlingame 4-2588.

Do you read the "papers"?

Certainly, everyone reads the "papers" for latest news, these days. But does your copy of the papers include local news of your neighbors, your city government, your home defense efforts, announcements by YOUR stores?

Not unless you read The Daly City Record, it doesn't. For San Francisco news is not Daly City news. Tax rates, civilian defense regulations, city government news (even county government news) from San Francisco do not apply in Daly City. You won't find your school news, organizational activities, etc., in San Francisco newspapers.
